About Kahili Creations

Founded in January of 2008, the talented jewelry designer at Kahili Creations is inspired by a long-time passion for the beauty, traditions, and natural resources of her native Hawaiian Islands, as well as a love for fine jewelry. Her creativity and enthusiasm are evident in each meticulously crafted piece, and is also reflected in the personal attention given to each and every customer. Guests of the Kahili Creations website are welcomed with the same warm hospitality as visitors to the Islands themselves.

About the Jewelry

At KahiliCreations.com, fine jewelry enjoys an exotic twist. You’ll find dozens of exquisitely beaded pieces made from an array of premium materials. Most of the collection sparkles with semi-precious gemstones, primarily tourmaline, sapphire, pearl, hessonite, labradorite, and garnet. Many pieces also make use of Thai Karen silver, gold, and Vermeil (a high-end, gold-plated metal). Kahili Creations’ goal is for every piece to accent the personal, individual style of every woman who wears one of their wholly unique pieces. Due to its handmade design, all Kahili Creations jewelry will vary in nuances of color, shading, and texture, ensuring that yours is truly a one-of-a-kind masterpiece.

At Your Service

Kahili Creations caters to both local and international buyers. If ordering from outside Hawaii, they ask that you contact them prior to finalizing your purchase so they can calculate the international shipping costs. The company prides themselves on superior customer service, responding to all product- and order-related questions promptly and courteously.
